MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate over 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains fifteen booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operation.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made through the Lions Public Relations Department. Credentials are available to working members of the media. Since no "Will Call" is in use, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow at least three days for mail delivery. Credentials may also be left at a local hotel for pick-up when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area. The press parking area is located adjacent to the Press Box on the southwest side of the stadium. Enter through Gate 1 off Opdyke Road.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Western Union, SportsComm and AmFax services are available. Please contact these organizations in advance if you plan on filing. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge.

TRAINING CAMP

The Lions enter their ninth year of training at Oakland University, located less than three miles from the Pontiac Silverdome. The media work room is located in Vandenberg Hall in the Pioneer Room on the second floor. This building is next to Hill House, the team's headquarters.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

Owner and President

As the Detroit Lions begin their 50th National Football League season this fall, Mr. William Clay Ford will enter his 20th year as the club's sole owner. And his fondest wish during this milestone season would be to see his Lions win a championship for the loyal fans of Detroit.

The storied history of the Lions franchise is well known to Mr. Ford and his family. They have played a part in the club's history from the very beginning. From his first game, as a young fan in 1934, to Super Bowl XVI and a playoff berth in 1982, Mr. Ford has played a large part in the success of NFL football in the Detroit area.

In 1934, his father, the late Edsel Ford, took young Bill to see this "new" team in action at the University of Detroit

Stadium. The franchise had just moved into the Motor City from Portsmouth, Ohio. Like the rest of Detroit, the youngster took an instant liking to the Lions.

Mr. Ford's management association with the Lions began over 27 seasons ago as a member of the Board of Directors. He was elected president in 1961, before purchasing the team outright in 1964.

Born and raised in the automotive industry, Mr. Ford is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company. As the youngest of four children of Edsel Ford, he attended Detroit University School in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, and Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut. After a tour of duty in the Naval Air Corps, he was graduated from Yale with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics. He then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff, and later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

On his way to the vice chairmanship of the company, to which he was elected in April 1980, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction as executive in charge of the design, development, and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father in 1939.

A member of the Ford Motor Company Board of Directors since 1948, Mr. Ford had overall supervision of the company's product design program from 1956 until his election to the vice chairmanship. He is one of four members of the Office of Chief Executive, who share responsibility for general management of the company; chairman of the Executive Committee; a member of the Finance Committee and the Policy and Strategy Committee; and chairman of the latter's Design Subcommittee.

The Lions' chief executive is also chairman of the board of Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan; president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research; a trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center; and a director of Boys' Clubs of America, the National Tennis Hall of Fame, United Foundation of Detroit and the Economic Club of Detroit.

Once a nationally ranked tennis player, Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone. They are the parents of three daughters and a son, William Jr., who is treasurer of the Lions.

RUSS THOMAS

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Certainly one of the National Football League's most experienced and dedicated executives is the Lions' Russ Thomas, now in his 36th season of service to the club. Russ has played many key roles in the Lions 50-year history and has seen first hand the growth of NFL football into America's No. 1 sport.

His recent role in helping to bring Super Bowl XVI to Michigan and the Pontiac Silverdome was another example of the hard work Russ has devoted to the game. Long an event for south or western climates, the NFL title game was finally voted into a northern site, primarily due to the work of Thomas and other community leaders. Super Bowl XVI was a major success, not only for the NFL, but for Michigan and the entire northeastern United States.

Since coming to the Motor City from his native West Virginia, Thomas has achieved notoriety as a player, scout, coach and broadcaster with the Lions. And now he holds the multi-faceted position of running the day-to-day operation of the club, a post he has held since 1967. Thomas was appointed Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1972.

Thomas is considered an expert in NFL matters and in player contract negotiations. He has been given even more responsibilities in the last few years, as Mr. Ford has been devoting more time to the automotive business. Russ regularly represents Detroit at the NFL owners' meetings.

Russ was an assistant coach when the Lions won NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. In addition to his coaching duties, and before the advent of film exchange and computers, Russ was in charge of scouting opposing teams, evaluating college prospects and negotiating player salaries.

In his playing days, Thomas was an outstanding lineman. He came out of West Virginia as one of the state's most sought after high school football and track stars. He held the state high school shot put and discus record in West Virginia for years. Last spring, Thomas was selected to the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

He went on to Ohio State, where he earned All-Big Ten honors and All-American mention for his work with the Buckeyes. In addition, he earned letters in track and wrestling at Ohio State. Thomas was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before a knee injury ended a promising playing career. He played both ways for Detroit and gained League recognition while serving as the co-captain of the team.

Thomas was an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure in 1950-51, before moving back to the Lions' staff. In 1964, after ten years on the staff, Mr. Ford named Thomas Director of Personnel, a post he held for three years until being named Vice President and General Manager.

Russ and his wife, Dorothy, live in Walled Lake. They are the parents of two married sons, John and Jim.

MONTE CLARK

Head Coach and Director of Football Operations

Monte Clark has a plan for 1983 and if his plan works, the Lions will be right back in the playoffs and seriously contend for championship honors. His plan consists of two very important ingredients; hard work and togetherness.

"I've always believed in the work ethic," says the 46-year-old Head Coach. "It's been a prime goal and the type of example I wanted to set throughout my playing and coaching career. This season I'm putting equal emphasis on togetherness. I've asked the players to put last year behind them; to forget the adversary relationship created by the strike. They've all agreed. This is the best way to succeed this year. We have good people, and even better talent, on this team."

Detroit qualified for the NFL playoffs in 1982, despite many obstacles and distractions. The Lions finished the shortened regular season at 4-5, this following an impressive 2-0 pre-strike start. But the club brought Detroit its first playoff berth in 12 years. Clark had seen the Lions eliminated from post season play in the last weeks of both 1980 and 1981. Last season's playoff appearance helped somewhat with the frustration.

Lion owner William Clay Ford knows the potential of this Clark-coached team. He signed Monte to a five-year contract extension in May 1982. Monte came to Detroit January 11, 1978, as Mr. Ford turned over complete control of the college draft, waivers, scouting and trades to the 6'6" coach. Since then, Clark has reassembled the club, primarily through the draft. Just seven players remain from the pre-Monte era.

Monte came to the Lions with an outstanding background in the NFL. He spent six years as offensive coach under Don Shula at Miami. He was part of Shula's original staff there in 1970. Monte helped develop the Dolphins into one of the League's most feared units. A pair of Super Bowl titles, along with three straight AFC Championships, brought Clark immediate coaching recognition. Under his leadership, Miami led the conference in rushing three consecutive years, setting a new NFL single-season record in 1972 during the perfect 17-0 campaign.

Clark became head coach at San Francisco in 1976 and propelled the 49ers into playoff prominence. Only some close, late-season defeats denied the team a berth. But the record indicated an 8-6 mark for Monte in his first year as head man and three more wins for the 49ers over the previous season.

Clark's coaching career followed an 11-year playing stint as an offensive lineman with San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland. With the Browns, he appeared in the League Championship games of 1964, '65 and '68. Monte, who entered pro ball after a fine collegiate career at USC, is a native of Kingsburg, California.

Monte and his wife, Charlotte, live in Bloomfield Township and are the parents of three sons, Bryan, 22; Randy, 20; and Eric, 16. The oldest of the Clark sons is a quarterback with the San Francisco 49ers. Bryan enjoyed a fine college career at Michigan State before being drafted in April 1982.

TIM ROONEY

Director of Player Personnel

A familiar and respected name in NFL circles is the Lions' Director of Player Personnel, Pittsburgh native Tim Rooney. He came to the Lions in 1979 to coordinate the club's college and pro scouting, aid in evaluating talent, and take part in trade discussions and other administrative affairs. Tim's help in the college draft has brought Detroit some of the best college talent, as evidenced by the outstanding draft choices contributing to the Lions' success now.

Rooney, 41, came to Detroit after helping the Pittsburgh Steelers to three Super Bowls and seven straight playoff appearances. He handled the Pittsburgh pro scouting department from 1972 to 1978.

Tim actually grew up with NFL football, as his family name has been synonymous with the pro game almost since its beginning. Tim's uncle, Art Rooney, Sr., is the owner of the Steelers and introduced pro football to the city of Pittsburgh in 1933. Tim is also the cousin of Dan Rooney, President of the Steelers, and Art Rooney, Jr., the Vice President of the Pittsburgh club.

A graduate of Duquesne, Rooney gained coaching experience with positions at Villanova and Rhode Island, prior to joining the Steelers.

Tim lives in Birmingham with his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Mike and Sarah.

SCOUTING STAFF

A group so instrumental in the many fine Detroit drafts during the past few years, is the Lions' scouting staff, composed of three highly qualified men; (l-r) Joe Bushofsky, Jerry Neri and Dirk Dierking.

Neri, senior member of the trio, is the western area scout. Based in Los Angeles, he is a veteran of 14 years with the club. Before joining the Lions in 1969, Neri coached at various levels. Following a fine career as a halfback at Villanova, he joined the school's coaching staff in 1943. He went on to positions with Loyola, Yale and the Washington Redskins. In 1965, he was made supervisor of the Pacific Coast scouting system of BLESTO, a talent-hunting combine representing many pro teams, including the Lions.

Bushofsky joined the Lions in 1975 and is in charge of the country's eastern area. Like Neri, Joe also spent time with BLESTO prior to beginning work in Detroit. A graduate of North Carolina State, he coached in the Pittsburgh area for 11 years. Joe lives in Birmingham, Michigan.

The third member of the scouting team is Clarence "Dirk" Dierking, a staffer since June of 1978. His responsibilities revolve around the central United States, especially his native southwest. He too was employed by BLESTO before joining the Lions. He makes his home in Texas.

DOLL

JOHNSON

DON DOLL — Special Assignments Coach — Don Doll, a former Detroit Lions player and coach, returned to the club in 1978 as special teams coach. He now serves as Monte Clark's right hand man in administrative and office matters. Doll, 56, played with the Lions from 1949 through 1952, representing the club three times in Pro Bowls as a defensive back. He is still Detroit's co-record holder for interceptions in a season, 12 in 1950. His first pro coaching position was with Detroit in 1963, when he started a two-year stint as secondary coach under George Wilson. Previously he had coached at Southern California and Notre Dame in the college ranks. Doll went on to become the Rams defensive backfield coach in 1965, then went to Washington from 1966 to 1970, before spending the 1971 through 1973 seasons at Green Bay. Don was defensive coordinator at Baltimore in 1974, then a defensive coach at Miami the following year. Doll graduated from USC in 1948. In his first pro season with Detroit, he intercepted 11 passes, including four in one game. Selected last May to the Sacramento, Ca. Sports Hall of Fame, Don and his wife, Diana, have five children, Steven, Wendy, Kevan, Heidi and Michael.

FRED HOAGLIN — Offensive Line Coach — Beginning his fifth year of NFL coaching, Fred Hoaglin has built an impressive offensive line from scratch. Working with rookies and young veterans, Hoaglin has impressed his former linemate, Monte Clark, whom he joined with Detroit in 1978. Clark, who played alongside Fred on the offensive line at Cleveland during the late 60s, watched a cohesive offensive line help the Lions lead the NFL in rushing in 1981. The 39-year-old Hoaglin opened his 11-year playing career as a sixth-round draftee of the Browns in 1966. Soon after, he began a string of 69 consecutive starts with the club, until a leg injury forced him out of the lineup in 1971. A 1969 Pro Bowler, Hoaglin was traded to Baltimore in 1973, then to Houston the following year. He was chosen as one of the original Seattle Seahawks in the veteran allocation of 1976. Fred played his college ball at the University of Pittsburgh, where he earned a degree in industrial engineering. The native of Alliance, Ohio is a long time member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Fred and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two children, a daughter, Patti, and a son, Ricky.

BILL JOHNSON — Offensive Backfield Coach — Monte Clark's first NFL coach, Bill Johnson, joined the Lions last February as offensive backfield coach. Johnson, 57, was San Francisco's offensive line boss during Clark's first three professional seasons; 1959-61. Bill, or "Tiger," as he's known to many, brings 24 years of NFL coaching experience to Detroit. He spent the previous four seasons as offensive line coach at Tampa Bay, where the Bucs used his teaching to allow the fewest number of sacks in the NFL during the period. Johnson's coaching career began in San Francisco in 1956. He went to Cincinnati in 1968, then was elevated to the head-job prior to the 1976 season. After three years as Bengal Head Coach, he joined the Bucs and was part of two NFC Central Division title-winning squads. As a player, Johnson spent eight seasons with the 49ers, from 1948-55, and was later elected to the Helms Foundation All-Pro team. Johnson graduated from Texas A&M in 1947. A native of Tyler, Tex., Bill and his wife, Dot, are the parents of a daughter, Sherilyn, and two sons, Bill and Tommy.

KHAYAT

MADDEN

MARCHIBRODA

ED KHAYAT — Defensive Line Coach — One-time Philadelphia Eagle head coach Ed Khayat rejoined the Lions coaching staff in January, 1982. Khayat, 47, coached Detroit's defensive line in 1973-74. A 16-year veteran of NFL coaching, Eddie had spent the previous five years as defensive line coach at Baltimore. With the Colts, he worked with former Detroit defensive coordinator Maxie Baughan and with current offensive coordinator Ted Marchibroda from 1977-79. Khayat began his pro coaching career in 1967 with New Orleans. After four years with the Saints, he moved to Philadelphia, where he spent two seasons. Three games into the 1971 campaign, he was named head coach of the Eagles, a position he held until moving to Detroit in 1973. Khayat went to Atlanta for two years in 1975, before joining Baltimore. Ed's coaching career followed a fine 10-year playing stint with Washington, Philadelphia and Boston of the AFL. A Tulane graduate, Khayat was signed as a free agent by Washington in 1957. He retired from Boston following the 1966 season. Khayat, a native of Moss Point, Miss., and his wife, Deborah, are the parents of two boys, Eddie Jr. and Bill.

JOE MADDEN — Special Teams Coach — An 18-year veteran of college coaching, Joe Madden joined the pro ranks in February 1980 as Detroit's new special teams coach. Madden, 47, had spent the previous three seasons as assistant head coach to Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee. He also coordinated the school's kicking and punting game. Madden began his college coaching career in 1962 at Mississippi State. He went to Morehead State the following year before spending four seasons at both Wake Forest and Iowa State. In 1972, Joe went to Kansas State, then joined Majors at the University of Pittsburgh the next year. He was Majors' top assistant in 1976 when the Panthers won the national championship behind the running of Tony Dorsett and quarterbacking of Matt Cavanaugh. Madden personally recruited 20 members of that title-winning squad. When Majors moved to the top spot at Tennessee in 1977, Madden went with him. A graduate of the University of Maryland, Joe also holds a masters degree from Mississippi State. Madden and his wife, Janis, are the parents of two daughters, Kerry and Keely; and two sons, Casey and Duffy.

TED MARCHIBRODA — Offensive Coordinator and Quarterback Coach — One of the NFL's most respected coaches and a former football star at the University of Detroit, Ted Marchibroda became the Lions offensive coordinator and quarterback coach in February, 1982. Marchibroda, 52, was named the NFL's Coach of the Year in 1975, when he took over a 2-12 Baltimore club and forged a 10-4 division winner in his first year. The Colts went on to capture three straight AFC East titles under Marchibroda. Following the 1979 campaign, Ted left coaching for a year. He returned as offensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears during 1981, before joining the Lions. Prior to his five-year stay in Baltimore, Marchibroda spent nine years as offensive coordinator under George Allen at Los Angeles and Washington. His pro coaching career began in 1961 under Bill McPeak at Washington. Marchibroda was a first round draft choice of Pittsburgh in 1953 after quarterbacking St. Bonaventure (1950-51) and U of D (1952). He was one of the nation's leading passers during his season with the Titans. In 1956, his best year as a player, Ted was the NFL's second leading passer. He retired in 1957 after a year with the Chicago Cardinals. Marchibroda is a native of Franklin, Pa. He and his wife, Henrietta, are the parents of two daughters, Jodi and Lonnie, and two sons, Ted Jr. and Robert.

PHILLIPS

SEIPLE

BEARD

MEL PHILLIPS — Defensive Backfield Coach — A former player under Monte Clark at San Francisco, Mel Phillips came aboard in February 1980 as the Lions' new defensive backfield coach. Clark sees a positive rapport developing between Phillips and his secondary men. Phillips, 41, played 12 seasons in the NFL from 1966-77, all with the 49ers. Mel worked under Clark in 1976 and Monte was instantly impressed with his intensity and attitude. Phillips played in all 14 games that year, intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble. Mel's career stats include 10 interceptions for 106 yards in returns, including a 35-yard touchdown in 1970. He was regarded as one of the most respected defensive backs in the game when he retired in 1977. Phillips played both ways during his college career at North Carolina A&T. During his senior year, the school won its conference championship, with Mel intercepting two passes and scoring two rushing TDs in the title game. He was very active at the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco for many years. He and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette.

LARRY SEIPLE — Receivers Coach — Monte Clark's first receiver coach in Detroit, Larry Seiple enters his fourth year with the Lions. Seiple is the Lions' first receiver coach since Raymond Berry in 1975. A 12-year veteran of NFL wars, Seiple was a punter and tight end with the Miami Dolphins from 1967-77. In 1979, Larry was an assistant coach under Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Miami. Clark worked with Seiple during his six-year stint as an assistant with the Dolphins. Both saw the club rise to the top, winning two Super Bowls and three AFC Championships during the early 70s. Larry's best receiving year was 1969 when he led the Dolphins with 41 receptions for 577 yards. Seiple's professional career punting average was an even 40 yards per kick, with his best season coming in 1973 when he averaged 42.3. During his pro career, Seiple logged more game appearances (160) than any Dolphin other than Bob Griese. Larry was drafted in the seventh round in 1967 by Miami. He attended the University of Kentucky. Seiple, 38, and his wife, Trudy, are the parents of two daughters, Keri and Lori; and a son, Larry.

ED BEARD — Defensive Coordinator and Linebacker Coach — Veteran NFL player and coach Ed Beard became a member of the Lions staff June 21, replacing the late Jackie Simpson, who died suddenly June 2. Beard coached with Detroit Head Coach Monte Clark at San Francisco during the 1976 season. It was one of 13 years Ed spent with the 49ers, first as a player, then as a coach. "Ed is an exceptional football coach," said Monte. "His qualities as a teacher are unparalleled. I have offered him jobs numerous times in the past and have spoken so highly of him that (Don) Shula and others have tried to lure him out of the private business he has been in. Because of our past association and the tragic loss of Jackie Simpson, Ed consented to come in and help us out." A linebacker and defensive end at the University of Tennessee, Beard was drafted by San Francisco in 1964. After a year of military service, Ed began an eight-year playing career with the 49ers. In 1972, his San Francisco teammates voted him their highest honor, the Len Eshmont Award for courageous and inspirational play. Ed coached the 49er linebackers from 1973-77, before moving to New Orleans in 1978. In 1980, he was the Saints' Defensive Coordinator. Ed has been out of coaching the past two seasons while employed in his own construction business in Virginia Beach, Va. A native of Chesapeake, Va., Ed and his wife, Bobby, have one daughter, Ashley.

WADE

JAROSHEWICH

GARY WADE — Strength and Conditioning Coach — Three years ago, Monte Clark hired his first strength coach, Gary Wade. Since then, the coach has pointed many times to the improvements first made in the weight room, then on the field. Wade brought with him increased emphasis on weight training and many Lions, like William Gay, Garry Cobb and Keith Dorney, have shown dramatic progress in the last three years. Gary, 27, came to the Lions from the University of Nebraska, where he spent the previous three years. Nebraska has long been known for its outstanding weight and conditioning program. Taking a page from the Nebraska book, Wade changed Detroit's training system, converting much of the emphasis from machines to "free weight." He has instituted motivational rewards, such as "Lifter of the Year," which is given annually to the Detroit player who displays the most desire and determination in the weight room. Many more players now stay in the area during the off-season attending daily conditioning sessions run by Wade and the trainers. Gary graduated from Nebraska in 1978 and now lives in Rochester.

KENT FALB — Head Trainer — Beginning his 18th season with the Lions is trainer Kent Falb, one of the NFL's most respected officials in the area of sports medicine. Kent tends to the Lions injuries, along with his assistant, Joe Recknagel, and the team doctors. He oversees all rehabilitation exercises, off-season conditioning and even the pre-game meal menu. Falb is the Lions primary consultant, both in preventing and healing injuries. Kent graduated from the University of Iowa in 1964, where he was a student trainer from 1960 through 1964. He also spent the fall of 1959 working at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. Falb worked some for the Minnesota Vikings in 1963 and 1964, before going to Boston College as Head Trainer in 1965. Late in 1966, Kent joined the Lions as assistant to Millard Kelley. Falb became Head Trainer in 1967. He is a past president of the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association. Falb, 43, lives in Lake Orion with his wife, Maxine, and daughters, Carmen and Nanette.

DAN JAROSHEWICH — Equipment Manager — The man responsible for outfitting the Lions is 29-year-old Windsor, Ont. native Dan Jaroszewich. His duties include purchasing, repairing, replacing and cleaning the many articles of clothing and pads used by the players and coaches. Aided by his assistant, Mark Glenn, and often a crew of ball boys, Dan also supervises the complicated task of moving all this equipment, be it to training camp a few miles down the road, or across the country for a West Coast game. Jaroszewich learned the business from long-time Detroit equipment man Roy "Friday" Macklem, who spent some 44 years with the Lions. Dan came aboard as "Friday's" assistant in 1973. After seven seasons under Macklem, Dan became the head man in 1980. Prior to joining the Lions, Jaroszewich worked at the high school and semi-pro levels in Windsor. Dan earned his college degree in personal and industrial relations from the University of Detroit. He is presently working on a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State. Dan and his wife, Kathy, live in Auburn Heights.

1983 ROOKIES

1983 DRAFT CHOICES

Round One: (13th choice)

JAMES JONES

Fullback — Florida

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 235

Born: Pompano Beach, Fla., Mar. 21, 1961

The best "pure" fullback in the 1983 draft . . . Fulfills Detroit's long-standing need for a big fullback and blocker for Billy Sims . . . Coaches feel the two can team up to form one of the League's finest backfields . . . Scouting reports said Jones was a bruising inside runner with enough quickness to get outside . . . He is also an excellent lead blocker, good enough to be named the Southeastern Conference's top blocking back in 1981 . . . James is also a sure-handed receiver, who caught 68 passes and five touchdowns during his career . . . He was the fourth all-time leading rusher in Florida history with 2,026 yards . . . He averaged 4.3 yards per carry and rushed for 17 touchdowns . . . His average of 93.4 all-purpose yards per game ranked 2nd among all-time Gator performers . . . Last fall, his second as captain of the team, he led Florida in rushing for the third straight year . . . He will be long remembered for his game-clinching 17-yard touchdown catch which enabled the Gators to topple Miami, 17-14, in last year's opening game . . . Very impressive during the Lions rookie camp, April 29-May 1 . . . Signed a multi-year contract with Detroit, May 12 . . . Jones, who is one of 10 children, hopes to help his family with the money he earns from football . . . An older brother, Alan, has been deaf since birth and James hopes to help him obtain necessary treatment . . . James recently married his high school sweetheart, Sheila Perry . . . He met her while attending Ely High in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla . . . Majors in Management.

James Jones' Florida stats:

Round Two: (40th choice)

RICH STENGER

Offensive Tackle — Michigan

Ht. 6-7 Wt. 280

Born: Port Washington, Wis., Mar. 10, 1960

Already the tallest and heaviest Lion on the current squad . . . Coach Monte Clark, at 6-6 himself, said Rich was the first player he's had to look up to . . . Compared to Atlanta All-Pro and former U. of Michigan player Mike Kenn by Detroit coaches and scouts . . . Is already bigger than Kenn coming out of college . . . Has added pounds since enrolling at Michigan as 218-pound freshman . . . Started all games for the Wolverines last fall, including the 1983 Rose Bowl . . . Voted first team All-Big Ten and an honorable mention to the AP All-America squad . . . Injured in last January's Rose Bowl, but should be 100% this fall . . . Rated as a first round pick by the Lions . . . Member of the National Honor Society . . . Enrolled in the School of Literature Sciences and Arts . . . A football, basketball and track star at Grafton, Wis. High.

Round Three: (67th choice)

MIKE COFER

Defensive End — Tennessee

Ht. 6-5 Wt. 235

Born: Knoxville, Tenn., Apr. 7, 1960

An exceptional athlete with "exciting" potential according to Coach Monte Clark . . . One of the most aggressive rookies to attend last spring's Lion camp . . . Will probably add more weight heading into this fall . . . Ran a 4.7 40 and possesses outstanding upper body strength . . . Lettered four years at Tennessee . . . A middle linebacker as a junior, he moved back to his original position at defensive end for the 1982 season . . . Finished second in tackles for the Vols with 84 . . . Elected captain last year . . . Had four quarterback sacks, two fumble recoveries and blocked a punt . . . An honorable mention to the All-America squad and a second team All-SEC choice . . . Reminded the late Lion defensive coordinator Jackie Simpson of Fred Dean, the outstanding defensive lineman coached by Simpson at San Diego . . . Capable of some outstanding feats, both in games and during testing . . . Vertical jumped 31½ inches and broad jumped 10 feet, both superior for a man his size . . . Nicknamed "Stop" to avoid confusion with former Vols tight end Mike E. "Go" Cofer . . . A highly regarded athlete at Rule High School in Knoxville . . . Majors in Elementary Education.

Round Four: (94th choice)

AUGUST CURLEY

Linebacker — Southern California

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 232

Born: Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 24, 1960

An almost certain first round selection had he not been injured much of last fall . . . Hurt in the second game last year against Indiana . . . Before the mishap, coaches and scouts claimed he was as good as Arkansas' Billy Ray Smith . . . Played both inside and outside linebacker . . . In 1982's opening game, against James Jones and Florida, Curley was in on 22 tackles and had one interception as he was named the ABC-TV/Chevrolet Player of the Game . . . As a junior, he started all 12 games and reached double figures in tackles during eight contests . . . A freshman member of the national championship Trojan squad in 1978 before being red-shirted in 1979 . . . Scouts liked his ability and instinct for the ball . . . Coach Monte Clark received positive news from the USC trainer before selecting August . . . After many months of rehabilitation, he is running 40-yard dashes and should be ready for training camp . . . A three-sport athlete at Southwest High in Atlanta, Ga. . . A linebacker in football, a forward for the basketball team, and the first pitcher to throw a no-hitter in the school's history . . . Enjoys photography and surfing . . . Majors in Marketing.

LIONS 1982 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

SEPT. 12 — LIONS 17, BEARS 10 at Pontiac, 71,337

Chicago	0	7	0	3	—	10
Detroit	7	3	0	7	—	17

- D — Hill 5 pass from Hipple (Thomas kick)
- C — Suhey 2 run (Roveto kick)
- D — Thomas 38 FG
- D — Sims 3 run (Thomas kick)
- C — Roveto 42 FG

The Lions sturdy defensive unit limited the Bears to just 50 rushing yards and stopped Chicago four times from the Detroit one-yard line to secure an opening day win at the Silverdome. Bear Walter Payton was held to just 26 yards and the team to only 154 total yards during the day. Quarterback Gary Danielson came on early in the fourth quarter to lead the Lions to the eventual winning touchdown, a three-yard run by Billy Sims.

SEPT. 19 — LIONS 19, RAMS 14 at Anaheim, Ca. 59,470

Detroit	0	9	7	3	—	19
Los Angeles	0	0	0	14	—	14

- D — Thomas 45 FG
- D — Thomas 46 FG
- D — Thomas 30 FG
- D — Hill 2 pass from Danielson (Thomas kick)
- LA — Guman 1 run (Lansford kick)
- D — Thomas 33 FG
- LA — Miller 85 pass from Ferragamo (Lansford kick)

Once again the Detroit defense was the key to victory, the Lions second straight of the young season. A late fourth quarter surge by the Rams was stifled by defensive tackle William Gay, who sacked LA quarterback Vince Ferragamo with 1:42 left, causing a fumble which was recovered by Doug English at the Lions 41 yard line. Detroit had built up a good lead heading into the final period, helped by four Bob Thomas field goals. Billy Sims ran for 119 yards and caught five passes for 103 additional yards, becoming only the 13th NFL player ever to accomplish the feat. Detroit was 2-0 after two weeks, but faced a 57-day player's strike the following Tuesday.

NOV. 21 — BEARS 20, LIONS 17 at Chicago, Ill. 46,783

Detroit	14	0	3	0	—	17

- C — Roveto 18 FG

John Roveto's 18-yard field goal with five seconds left beat the Lions in the first NFL game following the long player strike. Detroit pushed to a 14-3 lead in the first quarter after Ray "Bob" Oldham grabbed an interception and returned it 35 yards for the score. Seconds before Mark Nichols had caught a short TD pass from Eric Hipple. However rookie quarterback Jim McMahon brought the Bears back. On the afternoon he completed 16 of 27 for 233 yards and threw two touchdowns.

NY — Danelo 34 FG
NY — Danelo 40 FG
NY — Taylor 97 interception return (Danelo kick)

Giant linebacker Lawrence Taylor broke open a kicking contest on Thanksgiving Day with a dramatic interception at the New York three-yard line. He returned it all the way for the winning score with just over 10 minutes remaining in the game. The Lions totalled 321 offensive yards to the Giants 206, but Detroit lost a fumble and suffered three interceptions. Billy Sims earned his second 100-yard day of the year with 114 on 26 carries. Billy also caught six passes in a losing cause.

A three-touchdown performance by the passing team of Richard Todd and Wesley Walker shot down the Lions on Monday Night Football. Todd completed 23 of 32 for 384 yards and Walker caught five for 164. Detroit's Gary Danielson, starting his first game of 1982, was sacked five times and intercepted on three occasions. Billy Sims was held to 43 yards rushing, but did catch six for 85 yards through the air.

Detroit's William Gay intercepted a Lynn Dickey pass on the game's first play and the Lions were off and running. Detroit piled up 30 points on the powerful Packers before Green Bay could answer. It was the Lions first victory since the strike and broke a three-game losing streak. Detroit intercepted five passes and collected nine sacks, while Billy Sims ran for 109 yards on 29 carries and scored a record tying 28th career rushing touchdown. Alvin Hall opened the second half with a 96-yard TD kickoff return burying all Green Bay hopes.

- D — Thompson 1 pass from Danielson (Murray kick)

After spotting the Vikings a 24-7 halftime lead, Detroit came roaring back on the strength of Gary Danielson's 347-yard passing performance, scoring 24 second half points. But, the effort fell three points short as an on-side kick attempt fell into Minnesota hands as time ran out. Leonard Thompson caught two touchdowns, including a season and team long 70-yarder. His game totals included five catches for 161 yards. Danielson, whose yardage ranked fifth among all-time Detroit single game records, completed 20 of 39 for three TDs.

- D — Murray 28 FG
- GB — Stenerud 48 FG
- GB — Rodgers end zone fumble recovery (Stenerud kick)
- D — Rubick 1 run (Murray kick)

For the second time in three weeks, the Lions derailed the playoff-bound Green Bay Packers, this time getting a playoff invitation of their own. In a see-saw game, which featured the return of quarterback Eric Hipple to 1981 form, Detroit gained a spot in the 16-team NFL playoffs. Rookie tight end Rob Rubick, who had not touched the ball once all season, ran one-yard for the winning score with five minutes left. The winning drive began with the insertion of Hipple, who completed four of four for 53 yards during the drive. Another rookie, cornerback Bobby Watkins, intercepted three Packer passes, taking team leadership.

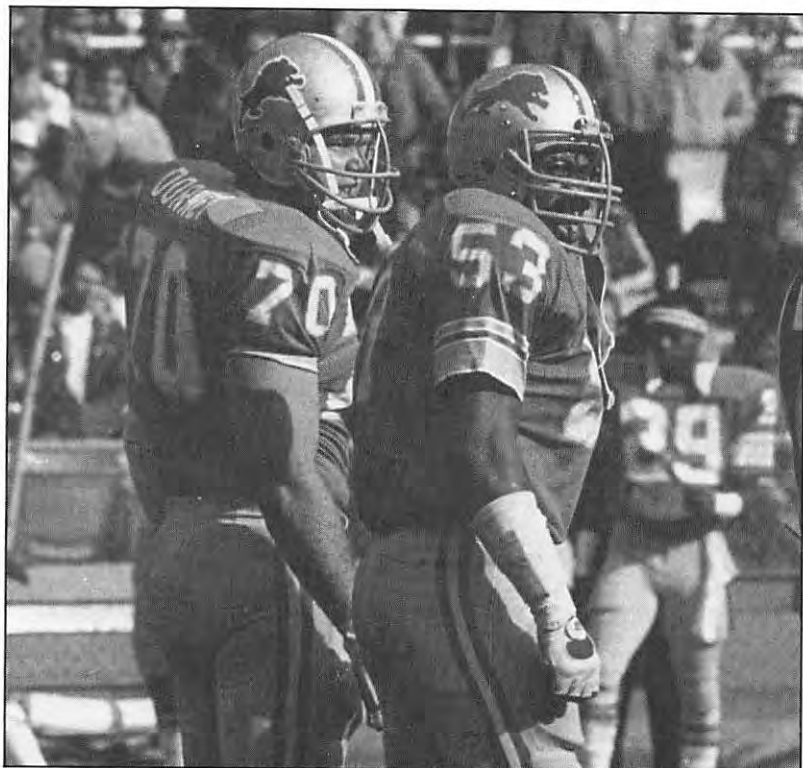

NFC PLAYOFFS — Round One

JAN. 8, 1983 — REDSKINS 31, LIONS 7
at Washington, D.C., 55,045

Detroit	0	0	7	0	—	7

- W — Garrett 21 pass from Theismann (Moseley kick)
- W — Garrett 27 pass from Theismann (Moseley kick)
- D — Hill 15 pass from Hipple (Murray kick)

In their first playoff appearance in 12 years, the Lions lost three key fumbles and suffered two interceptions in losing to the eventual Super Bowl XVII Champions. Detroit moved the ball well but lost the ball three times inside the Washington 25 yard line in the first half. Eric Hipple went all the way for the Lions at quarterback. He completed 22 of 38 for 298 yards and one TD. Billy Sims was held to just 19 yards, while Redskin John Riggins became the first opponent ball carrier of the year to gain over 100 yards against the Lions defense. Washington's Alvin Garrett caught three TD passes to spearhead the victory. Detroit's Leonard Thompson led all receivers, however, with seven catches for 150 yards.

NOTE: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike.

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

The Detroit Lions celebrate their 50th season in 1983, continuing a long and successful association with the Detroit area as its National Football League representative.

Detroit welcomed the Lions 49 years ago, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL. But the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then 10-year-old National Football League took a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit and for almost 50 years they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Greene, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later, to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of six million dollars.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary and "Night Train" Lane have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Lem Barney and Charlie Sanders have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Joe Schmidt began the first of six seasons as Head Coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas.

Just prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a fantastic stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a Fiberglas roof.

Control of all football operations was handed to Head Coach Monte Clark in January of 1978. Detroit just missed the playoffs in both 1980 and 1981, before finally qualifying in 1982. This year's goal will be to go ever further and give deserving Detroit fans a championship.
